Revitalise your business

- Strengthen your competitive edge
- Increase awareness of new style trends
- Improve floristry skills and knowledge
- Increase competence and confidence
- Increase employee satisfaction

Apprenticeships are designed to teach young people the skills they need to support your business.

Apprenticeships are available for those aged 16 – 65 and are free to the learner but an employer contribution may be required for learners who start an apprenticeship aged 19+. Most apprentices are employed by business and paid a salary that reflects their skills, experience, age and ability.

The Apprenticeship is made up of the NVQ Level 2 Floristry and Key Skills in Communications, Application of Number and Information Technology.

The Advanced Apprenticeship is made up of the NVQ Level 3 Floristry and Key Skills in Communications, Application of Number, Information Technology and Working with Others.

A training officer will agree a training plan with your apprentice and visit regularly in the workplace to manage the training and evaluation and assess progress.

Our highly skilled course tutors will provide top quality contemporary training for your apprentice whilst attending college.
