

Food Preparation & Service Certificate

If you have a passion for cooking or want to ensure that customers receive the very best in front of house service then join the best catering college in the South West. As a nationally recognised Centre of Excellence in three disciplines, an AA Highly Commended College Rosette winner and industry partners including Jamie Oliver's Fifteen Restaurant, River Cottage and the Eden Project there really is nowhere better to study catering and hospitality.

If you want to work in a fast-paced, action-packed and creative industry then look no further than a career in catering. The opportunities for career progression in this industry are some of the best. From commis chef to sous chef, all the way up to head chef, if you are willing to put in the hard work you could be running your own kitchen in a few years' time.

You will start your catering studies on one of our Level 2 courses, and can choose to stay with us for three years. Which Level 2 course you join will depend on your GCSE results. From here you can then progress on to our Professional Cookery Diploma Level 3. Our specialist professional chef courses are available for those who would like to take their studies further and have the relevant Level 2 and 3 qualifications.
