

Beauty Therapy Diploma

Beauty therapists specialise in beauty treatments for the face and body, which can range from massages and facials to hair removal and nail treatments. Beauty therapists play a very important role in helping their clients feel less stressed and more confident about themselves, while also helping them make the most of their physical appearance.

To ensure you gain all the skills needed for a career as a beauty therapist, you will need to start your studies at Level 2. On successful completion you can go into employment or continue your studies at Level 3.

If you wish to gain a general beauty therapy diploma which could lead to careers as a nail technician, beauty therapist, make-up artist or spa therapist then this course is ideal for you. You will build on the techniques already developed at Level 2 and increase your knowledge and experience.

✓ Ideal if

If you are already qualified to a Level 2 standard and you are looking to upgrade your qualification, this course will help you to progress in your career in beauty therapy. You may also be looking to show others that you have the skills necessary to offer treatments at a more advanced level.

☰ You'll need

Beauty Therapy Certificate Level 2, plus GCSE English and maths at grade 4.

🎓 You'll learn

Various techniques and skills which are used by senior beauty therapists.

You will study a range of skills and techniques used by senior beauty therapists, which include head and body massage treatments, tanning, microdermabrasion, electrotherapy, epilation and permanent lashes.

❓ Expect

To undertake one day a week mandatory work experience and study at home outside of college hours.
