Introducing

Cornish

into Early Years learning and play

Are you passionate about providing the best learning and play?

Do you value Cornish history and culture? Do you want to bring the benefits of bilingualism into your workplace? Are you ready for an exciting challenge to help develop your knowledge and skills? Then we have some great news! Starting soon, Cornwall College are running a fully-funded* Plymouth University short course.

The work-based Cornish Language Practice (Early Years) course will support you with introducing the Cornish language into the learning and play of young children. The course is supported by Maga (Cornish Language Partnership) and will run over 12 weeks, both in the evening and online.

* fully funded for those without a full degree and only for 2014/15. Thereafter normal charges will apply. There will be an admin fee of £50.
